The meeting that was recessed for the purpose of discussing the Vulture situation in Dauphin was reconvened on August 29, 2017. Kyle VanWhy and Matthew Rice, Biologists from USDA Wildlife Services, were in attendance to provide information to the Dauphin Borough Council and residents of the Borough.

Mr. VanWhy and Mr. Rice distributed a fact Sheet-Managing Vulture Damage in Pennsylvania. The fact sheet is attached to the minutes.

Council requested a Vulture Damage Management Estimate for the years 2017-2020. The quote was received September 5, 2017 and is attached to the minutes. It was decided that after Council received the quote, the borough would meet with the Dauphin Home Association, Stoney Creek Inn and other interested businesses to determine what action the Borough would take.

The Dauphin Home Association and Stoney Creek had representatives in attendance.

Adjournment from the meeting was 8:30.
